

Philips Arena

Arena title	Philips Arena
Capacity	18,238
About	Philips Arena is home to the Atlanta Hawks, of the National Basketball Association, and the Atlanta Dream, of the Women's National Basketball Association. It also served as home to the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers from 1999-2011, before the team moved to Winnipeg. It is owned by the Atlanta Fulton County Recreation Authority and operated by Atlanta Spirit, LLC, the group of investors that also owns the Hawks.
Logo	 The logo for Philips Arena features the word "PHILIPS" in a bold, blue, sans-serif font at the top. Below it is a blue square containing a white stylized graphic of three curved lines, resembling a wing or a flame. At the bottom of the square, the word "ARENA" is written in a white, sans-serif font.
Photo	 A photograph showing the exterior of Philips Arena. The building has a distinctive white, curved roof structure supported by several white columns. A wide, paved walkway leads towards the entrance. In the foreground, there are some green and white structures, possibly part of a parking garage or transit station.
